ANNOUNCING OUR NEWEST PARTNER

JOHN E. JENKINS, CPA

TAXATION SERVICES

“My career at BMF has provided me with the opportunity to make a tangible impact. It’s always been important to me to work in an environment where I can make meaningful, long-term contributions to my clients. Being able to do so at BMF, a firm that has such deep roots throughout the business community in Northeast Ohio, has been very rewarding.”

Bober Markey Fedorovich welcomes with pride and purpose, its newest partner, John Jenkins. John has extensive experience serving clients as a trusted advisor on tax planning strategies, compliance matters and company acquisition and selling scenarios. John joined BMF in 2013 after two decades with one of the industry’s “Big Four” firms. His expertise spans from Federal, multi-state and international tax compliance, buyout transaction and due diligence consulting and tax planning strategies for large C-corporations as well as closely held family businesses.

John is involved in a variety of activities within the firm, including serving as a team champion for the Taxation Lean Six Sigma initiative, which strives to drive greater efficiency and improved client experience in the tax process. With the accelerating pace of tax policy and tax reform measures adding tremendous complexity to his work, he understands that his role as a proactive tax advisor requires him to serve as a resource for both staff and clients who are trying to comprehend which policy changes matter, and how to ensure compliance as well as tax strategies.

John lives in Cuyahoga Falls with his wife and three children. He is a proud Mount Union alumni and is active in a variety of community organizations including DANCECleveland, Immaculate Heart of Mary, Boy Scouts and The National Center for Choreography - Akron.
